Brass Beds at $9.74-A Peg on Which to Hang the February Furniture Sale Story

This February sale of Furniture is a record-breaker in more ways than one It must be if we are to maintain the standard of value-giving established by our Fiftieth Anniversary Sales. That the standard is being maintained—and in many instances BETTERED—is apparent to every one who goes through these great sale stocks, inspects the Furniture and notes the price tickets. The stocks are too varied for details of all the underprice offerings involved. Examples—like this remarkable offering of Brass Beds—are abundant. We might point out GREATER SAVINGS—say Parlor Suits and odd pieces of Upholstered Furniture at prices that no more than represent the COST OF THE UPHOLSTERING. But to-day we centre attention on the Brass Beds—use the collection as the peg on which to hang the story of sale underpricing.

Brass Beds of all sizes, made with 2-inch posts and six 5/8-inch upright filler rods, head and foot, the tubing and lacquer fully guaranteed—the same as is used in beds selling up to $60. The side bars and angles are of malleable iron—not brittle castiron. You can use a sledge hammer on them without fear of breaking them. The Sale price—$9.74—is the lowest you have ever seen quoted for a Brass Bed of such excellent construction, and it is much lower than than you have ever seen quoted by others for shakily constructed Beds.

Three and Five Piece Parlor Suits One hundred and fifty different designs. We show the finished frames, allowing you to select style of covering and color in either satin damask, Verona velour, tapestry or silk plush. Three-Piece Suits
